In 1994, Mazama Lodge 421 and Makualla Lodge 437 merged to form Lo La 'Qam Geela Lodge.

Mazama Lodge had served the Crater Lake Council since the lodge's charter in 1949; it held its first ordeal here at Camp McLoughlin on the shores of Lake of the Woods during the summer of 1948. Council Executive Cliff Hansen played a key role in the lodge's charter, and George Goodman served as the first Lodge Chief.

Makualla Lodge had served the Modoc Area Council since the lodge's charter in 1950, and was the first lodge to host the Section W-1A Conclave (in 1952).

Lo La 'Qam Geela means "Land of the Fire," and the Firebird was chosen as the lodge totem.

This Special Edition lodge flap has been officially created by Lo La 'Qam Geela Lodge, and is the second patch in a three-part set.

Arrowmen,

It is my pleasure and honor to serve as your Lodge Chief for the centennial year of the Order of the Arrow. By attending this event, in this Lodge, you are now engraving your name in the history of Lo La'Qam Geela. Whether you are Ordeal, Brotherhood, or Vigil, you're a key component to making this year successful. For without you reading this letter while sitting under the roof of this very dining hall in Camp McLoughlin today, Saturday, April 11th, this event would not exist. This Lodge would not exist. I challenge you to attend as many events as you can in this historical, centennial year. Keep the history and legacy of this Lodge alive. If you can do that, keep the fire burning, I have no doubt in my mind that Lo La'Qam Geela will last another hundred years.

HISTORY

Lo La'Qam Geela Lodge 491 was born in the fall of 1993, after the merger of Crater Lake Council and Modoc Area Council, and the respective merger of their Order of the Arrow Lodges, Mazama Lodge 421 and Makualla Lodge 437.

Mazama Lodge had served the Crater Lake Council since the lodge's charter in 1949; it held its first ordeal at Camp McLoughlin on the shores of Lake of the Woods during the summer of 1948. Makualla Lodge had served the Modoc Area Council since the lodge's charter in 1950.

In 2015, Mike Bliss, Bill Clary, Rob Patridge and Mike Goswick were bestowed the National Order of the Arrow Centurion Award for their contribution and commitment to the Lodge since its inception in 1948.

Lo La'Qam Geela means "Land of the Fire" and the Firebird was chosen as the lodge totem.

LETTER FROM THE CHIEF

Arrowmen,

It is my pleasure and honor to have served the past year as your Lodge Chief for the centennial year of the Order of the Arrow. I would like to personally thank each and every one of you for attending the final event of the OA's 100th anniversary celebration in our lodge. At Spring Fellowship, I urged you all to take part in an event of this historic year. And now, as the year comes to a close, I would like to issue another challenge: spread the word. Spread the word of how much fun this weekend was, of brotherhood and cheerfulness, of the rewards of Scouting. Keep the history and legacy of this lodge alive. If you can keep the fire burning, I am certain that the legacy of Lo La'Qam Geela will last for the next century.

LETTER FROM THE CHIEF

Arrowmen,

It is my pleasure and honor to have served the past year as your Lo La'Qam Geela Lodge Chief for 2016 in Crater Lake Council. I would like to personally thank each and every one of you for attending the fellowship.

I have had a wonderful year serving and working to improve our Lodge. After attending NEXT this year we have the potential with many new ideas to implement in the Lodge. Hopefully these changes will be carried out through this coming year and positively impact the Lodge.

As a lodge we can't be afraid to change. If you have a radical new idea speak up, if the Lodge is unable to change and adapt to our ever changing society then this brotherhood of cheerful service will dwindle and die. Through change and innovation we will see the Lodge through many more years of prosperity and growth.

LETTER FROM THE LODGE

2017 was another year of great service to our community, Scouting and to Crater Lake Council. Brotherhood Cheerfulness and Service was at the foundation of our work to help further our mission in the Order of the Arrow. We would like to thank each and every one of you for your contribution and work this year.

We also continued our relationship with Crater Lake National Park through our annual service project supporting the National Park Service. We provided our service to the OA Section and Conclave through our work in leading registration and being the host service Lodge at Lane Community College. We had members go to the 2017 National Jamboree and provide service to the national OA Operation Arrow initiative as part of Jamboree Trek Guides.

The continued opportunity to serve and demonstrate our leadership is what being a Firebird and a member of Lo La'Qam Geela Lodge is all about.

Letter from the Chief

Brothers,

2018 was an amazing year for our lodge and no better way to kick off our 25th celebration. This spring our lodge hosted the council-wide Camporall: The Last Frontier. Lead by our lodge's youth leaders, hundreds of scouts from troops all across Crater Lake Council convened for awesome activities, fellowship, evening show, and fun. This summer our lodge sent a contingent of 10 and 3 staff to NOAC, the National Order of the Arrow conference. Located at Indiana University, thousands of arrowmen "Decided their Destiny" participating in the world class training, activities, stadium shows, patch trading, and more. Among our firebirds we placed top 10 at the Spartan Race, 2nd at the NOAC Science Fair, and number one out of 6,833 participants in the NOAC-wide competition: Seek. This fall, our lodge had a great time at Jurassic Conclave at Camp Baker, with over 40 arrowmen from our lodge attending. Two of our chapters, Amangi Kuwe and Da-Gel-Ma even won the My Chapter Rocks competition, and threw a total of four shaving cream pies at my face.

It was truly my honor and pleasure to serve as your chief. From our redesigned induction weekends, to observing the amazing ceremonies, to working with you to make Camporall a success, to leading the contingent to NOAC, I enjoyed every bit of my term. Thank you to all my members of the LEC and to all the arrowmen who make us such a great lodge. We've had a great 25 years, here's to 25 more!

Mow-A-Toc Lodge #262

Mow-A-Toc Lodge #262, chartered May 27, 1944, served Humboldt and Del Norte counties in Northern California for 50 years. The lodge supported and maintained the Elk River Scout Camp since 1952 (now called Camp Riggs Johnston), Camp Grant Myers, Camp Tish Tang, Camp I-Yee-Que, and Camp Hetten Cove. In 1992 the Redwood Area Council and the Sonoma-Mendocino Area Council merged to form Redwood Empire Council, resulting in Mow-A-Toc Lodge #262 and Cabrosha Lodge #537 merging to form Orca Lodge #194 on January 6th, 1994; the two former Lodges becoming Orca's two Chapters. In 2012, the Councils were realigned, and Mow-A-Toc Chapter joined Lo La' Qam Geela #491. Notable members of the Mow-A-Toc Lodge include Kitty Harriman, who is believed to be one of the first female members, Pug Davis, the 1965 National Vice Chief, and Matthew Dukeman, the current National Director of the Order of the Arrow.

LIKE A FIREBIRD, RISING FROM THE FIRE OF CHEERFULNESS...

Lo La'Qam Geela Lodge #491 was born in the fall of 1993, after the merger of Crater Lake Council and Modoc Council, and their respective Order of the Arrow Lodges: Mazama Lodge #421 and Makualla Lodge #437. Temporarily operating under the Mazama name, the new lodge received their first charter in the December of 1995. The name "Lo La'Qam Geela" was chosen from the local Klamath Indian Language and translates to "Land of Fire", referencing the important connection to the volcanic landscape. The Firebird was fittingly chosen as the Lodge totem, referencing to a Klamath Tribe myth of a giant bird that lived in the caldera known as Crater Lake. Passed down through hundreds of generations of oral history, this tale originated from Indians who witnessed the last eruption of Mt Mazama 7,700 years ago. Stretching nearly 300 miles North to South, Lo La'Qam Geela was originally split into five chapters: Klamath, Big Pines, Roaring Rogue, Warm Springs, and Siskiyou.

In 2012, Lo La'Qam Geela grew with the addition of Mow-A-Toc chapter from Orca Lodge #194 in Northern California. This made the Lodge stretch over 400 miles from Warm Springs and Bend in Central Oregon, through Klamath and Medford in Southern Oregon, to Shasta and Eureka in Northern California. Lo La'Qam Geela now has five chapters: Amangi Kuwe (Great Pine Tree), Da-Gel-Ma (name of local Takelma Indians), Hyas Lamonte (High Mountain), Klamath (name of local Klamath Indians), and Mow-A-Toc (name of Mow-A-Toc Lodge).

Firebirds,

Welcome to the Kickoff! I'm very excited to be working with you all, and I am sure that Lo La' Qam Geela Lodge #491 will have an outstanding year. As we continue our 25th Lodge anniversary celebration, I want to provide you a patch representing Mazama Lodge and its legacy that continues inside of our Lodge.

Mazama Lodge #421

Mazama Lodge #421 came to Crater Lake Area Council in 1947, likely introduced by the new council executive Cliff Hanson. In the summer of 1948, Tsisqan Lodge carried out the first Ordeal at Camp McLoughlin where they inducted new members and the camp staff organization of the McLoughlin Rangers. On August 1st, 1949 Mazama Lodge obtained its official charter from the National Order of the Arrow Organization. The lodge name "Mazama" came from the name of the mountain that erupted to form Crater Lake and the Thunderbird was fittingly chosen as the totem.
